

2022 Heritage Foundation Small Stock Sponsorship

The Contra Costa County Fair Heritage Foundation is inviting all FFA and 4H members to apply for the 2022 Heritage Foundation Small Stock Sponsorship! This Sponsorship will include a $250 award, belt buckle and a small stock market animal. Over the past year, the Heritage Foundation has raised more than $25,000.00 to contribute towards improvements directly benefiting the Livestock department and facilities at the Contra Costa County Fair. The Heritage Foundation is currently working on additional projects to help the fair and livestock department continue to thrive. Please consider applying and helping be part of Contra Costa County Heritage Foundation history.

Requirements:

- Must be a Contra Costa County resident.
- Must be willing to raise a small stock animal (meat bird, turkey or rabbit) for sale with all proceeds benefiting the Contra Costa County Fair Heritage Foundation.
- Submit the enclosed application and attend an interview with the scholarship committee
- Have never show a small stock market animal
- Must be 9-18 years old as of January 1, 2023
- Act as an Ambassador for the Heritage Foundation through the 2023 Contra Costa County Fair.
- Interviews will be scheduled between January 9th – 13th at the Contra Costa County Fairgrounds.

Recipient Receives:

- $250 cash prize
- Two passes to Contra Costa County Fair Heritage Foundation Hospitality Room (if not Heritage Members)
- Reimbursement for expenses related to raising the 2023 Heritage Small Stock Animal, including: Animal purchase (up to $100.00), feed (up to $200.00) and basic equipment (with prior approval).

All materials must be received no later than December 31st, 2022.
